Hi Ryan,

I hope you are doing well today. I want to tell you something special. Next Friday is my birthday, and I am planning a small party at my house. The party will be from six p.m. to eight p.m. There will be pizza, cake, and some fun games for everyone. I really hope you can come because it will be more fun with you there. If you can, please bring your guitar because everyone loves to listen to your music. It makes the party very exciting. We can sing together and enjoy the evening. I am looking forward to celebrating with my friends. Please let me know soon if you are free to join. Thank you very much for being such a good friend.
